Dear Valued Client:

Re: Clarification regarding SGI Bulletin #34-13-10 – Habitational/
Agro Quoter

On November 12, 2013, all SGI brokers received an SGI Bulletin regarding the new Habitational/Agro Quoter that will be available in BOSS.

This has caused some confusion as to whether TBW is still going to have Habitational/Agro Quoter rates as always.

I can assure you, the answer is a resounding yes. CSSI has already received the January 2014 updates for both product lines from SGI.

We look forward to continuing to provide you with all of the services to which you are accustomed.

If you have any questions or concerns, please feel free to contact me directly.

Sincerely,
